To Whom It May Concern:

We're delighted with the exceptional services that Robert Tisdale, CEO of Marketing Asset Control, <https://www.marketingassetcontrol.com/> has delivered for us at Clear Channel.

Most recently, Robert's March 2020 placement at Signature Flight Support's (<https://www.signatureflight.com/>) private terminals, regaling Compass' new luxury condos, 181 Fremont, was particularly effective. The tallest building on the West Coast perched more than 500 feet, 181 Fremont is located in South of Market, San Francisco. This modern marvel of architecture features 55 ultra-luxury residences with 360-degree views overlooking Bay City. Robert's choice and execution engaging Signature Flight Support's private air clientele was beyond compare. We're proud and honored to have been of service to Compass with this spectacular campaign and are grateful for Robert's long-standing loyalty, curation and leadership.

Relying on the services of Robert Tisdale and his Marketing Asset Control team, Clear Channel Outdoor looks forward to supporting all new Compass projects in development throughout the United States.

Thank you.
